AVIATION EXPERTISE LEADS TO SUCCESS

Fraser Milner Casgrain LLP (FMC) is pleased to announce that Robert Donald has joined the firm as Counsel in the Aviation Group. Mr. Donald served as General Counsel of the International Air Transport Association, and will advise FMC's clients on legal matters related to international aviation, national and international commercial transactions. He will be based in FMC's Calgary office. Mr. Donald spent 10 years at the International Air Transport Association (IATA), working in both Geneva and Montreal. Prior to joining IATA, he was a partner at a Montreal law firm. He is a member of the Quebec Bar and a frequent speaker on international aviation. FMC is one of Canada's largest business and litigation law firms, with more than 500 lawyers in six offices across Canada and one in New York.
